Core Values

“And seeing the multitudes, He felt compassion for them, because they were distressed and downcast like a sheep without a shepherd.” (Matthew 9:6)

“Come to Me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart; and you shall find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and My load is light.” (Matthew 11:28-30)

“Therefore, be imitators of God as dear children. And walk in love, as Christ also has loved us and given Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling aroma.” (Ephesians 5:1-2)

- We seek to be motivated by the love of God, not by the need for acceptance.
- We seek to impart God’s love in everything we do.
- We seek to be motivated by love and compassion in all that we do.
- We seek to err on the side of grace rather than with judgement.
- We are personally committed to a lifestyle of never-ending change, seeking to be conformed to the image of Christ.
- We desire to take personal responsibility for our lives, actions, and emotions and not to blame others for the things that go wrong in our lives.
- We are constantly seeking to increase in wisdom and knowledge, through continued study of sound biblical truth and leading of Holy Spirit.
- We seek for our words to be seasoned with grace, to lift others up and never to bring down, devalue or defame one of God’s creations.
- We see our bodies as temples of the Holy Spirit and seek to manage them with purity and moderation.
- We seek to practice the presence of the Lord all through the day.
- We seek to be receivers of God’s love and to give and minister out of the overflow of love in our lives.
- We seek to be good listeners who judge not by what our eyes see, or ears hear but by discerning the root issues of the heart.
- We seek to rejoice more in our names being written in the Book of Life than we do in the success and praise that ministry can bring us.
